

DO SOME REFLECTION

Pause and reflect on your Why and When for further education.

WHY?

Why are you exploring Further Education now?

WHAT?

What specific skills, knowledge, or experience do I hope to gain through a Further Education?

HOW?

How does Further Education align with my long-term career aspirations and personal growth?

ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER:

How have my academic and professional interests evolved over time, and how does pursuing Further Education fit into this progression:

What strengths, talents, or unique qualities do I possess that make me well-suited for success in the program of my choice?

How does Further Education contribute to my personal and intellectual development, as well as my contribution to the field of study?

What support systems and resources are available to me during my studies? What support systems/resources can I tap into?

Have I thoroughly researched potential programs and considered their offerings, faculty, and opportunities for growth?

How does my decision to pursue Further Education align with my values, passions, and long-term goals?
